CITY OF REDMOND RESOLUTION NO. 1315

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON, ADOPTING THE COMPREHENSIVE FLOOD HAZARD MANAGEMENT PLAN

WHEREAS, a Comprehensive Flood Hazard Management Plan (CFHMP) has been prepared, following a public process that included a Flood Management Advisory Committee made up of representatives for Redmond residents, businesses, the Washington State Department of Ecology, and King County; and

WHEREAS, a CFHMP documents streams, rivers, land uses, and regulations related to flood hazards; and

WHEREAS, a CFHMP identifies goals for flood hazard reduction consistent with the needs of residents, businesses, and neighboring jurisdictions; and

WHEREAS, a CFHMP identifies flood hazards, alternative solutions, and makes recommendations for future projects and program modifications to address these hazards; and

WHEREAS, the City has knowledge and experience that flood hazard events can pose a threat to lives and cause damage to property within the City of Redmond; and

WHEREAS, staff working with technical experts have used available technologies, information, and historical documents to conduct a comprehensive analysis resulting in the preparation of the City of Redmond CFHMP; and

WHEREAS, the CFHMP formalizes the City's comprehensive efforts to make the City safer through preventing damage in the built environment; and

WHEREAS, the CFHMP has been reviewed by the Washington State Department of Ecology, King County, relevant departments, boards, committees, within Redmond; and

WHEREAS, the CFHMP was presented to Council on November 17, 2009, and was available for public comment and review; and

WHEREAS, the Washington State Department of Ecology and the Federal Emergency Management Agency award grants for flood control assistance and gives preference to proposals that are identified within Comprehensive Flood Hazard Management Plans.

NOW THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF REDMOND, WASHINGTON, HEREBY RESOLVES AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Adoption of Plan. The City Council of the City of Redmond, Washington, hereby adopts that certain document entitled, "City of Redmond Comprehensive Flood Hazard Management Plan", dated November 17, 2009, as the official comprehensive flood hazard management plan for the City.

ADOPTED by the Redmond City Council this 15th day of December, 2009.
